

RUNWAY GROWTH CREDIT FUND INC.
(THE “COMPANY”)

AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER

Purpose

The Audit Committee is appointed by the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of the Company, pursuant to authority delegated to it by the Board, to monitor (1) the integrity of the financial statements of the Company, (2) the independent auditor’s qualifications and independence, (3) the performance of the Company’s internal audit function and independent auditors, and (4) the compliance by the Company with legal and regulatory requirements.

The Audit Committee shall prepare the report required by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) to be included in the Company’s annual proxy statement.

Committee Membership and Function

The Audit Committee of the Company shall at all times be composed solely of Independent Board Members. “Independent Board Members” are directors of the Company who (i) are not “interested persons” (as defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940 (the “1940 Act”)) of the Company, (ii) are “independent directors” (as defined in Rule 5605(a)(2) of the Nasdaq Stock Market’s listing standards) and (iii) meet the independence requirements of Section 10A(m)(3) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”) and the rules and regulations of the SEC, including the requirement that they not accept directly or indirectly any consulting, advisory, or other compensation from the Company (other than directors’ fees received in his or her capacity as a member of the Audit Committee, Board or another committee of the Board). The Board shall designate the members of the Audit Committee.

The members of the Audit Committee shall be elected by the Board annually or until their successors shall be duly elected and qualify, and the Board shall have the power at any time to change the membership of the Audit Committee, to fill all vacancies, and to designate alternate members to replace any absent or disqualified members of the Audit Committee, so long as the Audit Committee is always comprised solely of Independent Board Members. Unless a Chairman is elected by the Board, the members of the Audit Committee may designate a Chairman by majority vote of the full Audit Committee membership. The compensation, if any, of the Audit Committee members shall be as determined by the Board.

The Audit Committee shall, as a matter of best practices, endeavor to have at least one member with the requisite qualifications to be designated by the Board as an “audit committee financial expert,” as such term is defined by the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and rules adopted thereunder from time to time (the “Sarbanes-Oxley Act”). To that end, the Audit Committee shall consider at least annually whether one or more of its members qualify to be designated by the Board as an “audit committee financial expert.” The Audit Committee shall report the results of its deliberations to the Board for further action as appropriate, including, but not limited to, a determination by the Board that the Audit Committee membership includes or does not include one or more “audit committee financial experts” and any related disclosure to be made concerning this matter. If a vacancy exists due to the retirement or resignation of a member of the Audit Committee who has been designated as an “audit committee financial expert,” the Board will, as a matter of best practices, endeavor to fill such vacancy with another “audit committee financial expert,” as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter. The designation of a member of the Audit Committee as an “audit committee financial expert” will not increase the duties, obligations or liability of the designee as compared to the duties, obligations and liability imposed on the designee as a member of the Audit Committee and of the Board.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, (i) the Audit Committee shall at all times have at least one member that has past employment experience in finance or accounting, requisite professional certification in accounting, or any other comparable experience or background which results in the individual’s financial sophistication, including being or having been a chief executive officer, chief financial officer or other senior officer with financial oversight responsibilities, and (ii) all members of the Audit Committee shall be able to read and understand fundamental financial statements, including a company’s balance sheet, income statement, and cash flow statement.

Committee Authority and Responsibilities

The primary function of the Audit Committee is to serve as an independent and objective party to assist the Board in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities for the Company’s accounting and reporting processes and the audits of its financial statements. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, it is recognized that members of the Audit Committee are not full-time employees of the Company or management and are not, and do not represent themselves to be, accountants or auditors by profession. As such, it is not the duty or the responsibility of the Audit Committee or its members to conduct “field work” or other types of auditing or accounting reviews or procedures, to determine that the financial statements are complete and accurate and are in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, or to set auditor independence standards. Each member of the Audit Committee shall be entitled to rely on (a) the integrity of those persons within and outside the Company and management from which it receives information; (b) the accuracy of the financial and other information provided to the Audit Committee absent actual knowledge to the contrary (which shall be promptly reported to the Board); and (c) statements made by the officers and employees of the Company, its investment adviser or other third parties as to any information technology, internal audit and other non-audit services provided by the independent accountants to the Company. In carrying out its responsibilities, the Audit Committee’s policies and procedures shall be adapted, as appropriate, to best react to a changing environment.

The Audit Committee shall be given the resources and authority appropriate to discharge its responsibilities, including the authority to retain experts, independent counsel or consultants at the expense of the Company. The Audit Committee shall also be given the resources, as determined by the Audit Committee, for payment of (i) compensation to any registered public accounting firm engaged for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or performing other audit, review or attest services for the Company and (ii) ordinary administrative expenses of the Audit Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties.

The Audit Committee shall review this Charter at least once annually and recommend any changes to this Charter that it deems appropriate to the full Board. The Audit Committee shall have such further responsibilities as are given to it from time to time by the Board. The Audit Committee shall consult, on an ongoing basis, with management, the independent accountants and counsel as to legal or regulatory developments affecting its responsibilities, as well as relevant tax, accounting and industry developments.

Nothing in this Charter shall be interpreted as diminishing or derogating from the responsibilities of the Board.

Pursuant to authority granted to it by the Board, the responsibilities of the Audit Committee are:

Retention of Independent Accountants and Approval of Services

See the "Policy on Pre-Approval of Audit and Non-Audit Services" set forth in Annex A.

To consider whether, in order to assure continuing auditor independence, it is appropriate to adopt a policy of rotating the independent accounting firm on a regular basis.
7. To oversee compliance with the guidelines set forth in Annex B relating to the Company's hiring of employees or former employees of the independent accountants who participated in any capacity in the audit of the Company.

 - (a) to review the arrangements for and the scope of the annual audit and any special audits or other special permissible services;
 - (b) to review the Company's financial statements and to discuss any matters of concern arising in connection with audits of such financial statements, including any adjustments to such statements recommended by the independent accountants or any other results of the audits;
 - (c) to consider and review, as appropriate and in consultation with the independent accountants, the appropriateness and adequacy of the Company's financial and accounting policies, procedures and internal accounting controls and, as appropriate, the internal controls of key service providers, and to review management's responses to the independent accountants' comments relating to those policies, procedures and controls, and to any special steps adopted in light of material control deficiencies;

RUNWAY GROWTH CAPITAL LLC
RUNWAY ADMINISTRATOR SERVICES LLC

Section 301 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 requires U.S. securities exchanges and national securities associations to adopt listing standards requiring that audit committees of the boards of directors of listed public companies establish procedures for: (i) the receipt, retention, and treatment of complaints received by the issuer regarding accounting, internal accounting controls, or auditing matters; and (ii) the confidential, anonymous submission by employees of the issuer of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters. Though Runway Growth Credit Fund Inc. (the "Company") currently operates as a private company subject to the reporting requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), it voluntarily chooses to operate pursuant to the standards outlined in this Whistleblower Policy.

Audit committees must maintain procedures for the confidential, anonymous submission of concerns relating to questionable accounting or auditing matters by officers or employees of the issuer, investment adviser, administrator, principal underwriter, or any other provider of accounting related services (each, an "Interested Party" and collectively, the "Interested Parties").

This Whistleblower Policy has been adopted by each of the Company, Runway Growth Capital LLC, the Company's investment adviser, and Runway Administrator Services LLC, the Company's administrator (each, a "Covered Person"). Each Covered Person strives to create an environment in which officers and employees openly communicate with management regarding (i) potential violations of this Whistleblower Policy by an officer or employee of the Covered Person; (ii) complaints about accounting concerns by officers or employees of an Interested Party; and (iii) complaints and or concerns about violations of any applicable U.S. federal securities law¹ (hereinafter, collectively referred to as "Concerns").

Officers and employees further understand that this Whistleblower Policy does not limit an officer’s or employee’s ability to communicate with any Government Agencies or otherwise participate in any investigation or proceeding that may be conducted by any Government Agencies or other authority, including providing documents or other information, without notice to the Company. This Whistleblower Policy does not limit officers’ or employees’ right to receive an award for information provided to any Government Agencies or other authority.

Acting in Good Faith

Anyone reporting a Concern must act in good faith and have reasonable grounds for believing the information disclosed indicates an improper or fraudulent practice, or a violation of the federal securities laws.

Confidentiality

Reports of Concerns, and investigations pertaining thereto, shall be kept confidential to the extent possible, consistent with the need to conduct an adequate investigation. Disclosure of reports of Concerns to individuals not involved in the investigation will be viewed as a serious disciplinary offense.

Reporting and Retention of Non-Human Resources-Related Complaints and Investigations

The CCO will periodically report to the CEO on the status of all pending reported Concerns.

Roles, Rights and Responsibilities of Whistleblowers

A person or entity making a protected communication or disclosure is commonly referred to as a whistleblower. The whistleblower’s role is as a reporting party. They are not investigators or finders of fact and only participate in investigations when requested. In addition, whistleblowers do not determine the appropriate corrective or remedial action that may be warranted.

Whistleblowers have the role of providing initial information related to a reasonable belief that a Concern has occurred. The motivation of a whistleblower is irrelevant to the consideration of the validity of the allegations. However, the intentional filing of a false report, whether orally or in writing, is itself a Concern that a Covered Person has the right to act upon.

Whistleblowers should gather evidence for which they have a right of access. Improper access may itself be a Concern.

The Company expects whistleblowers to be candid and set forth all known information regarding reported allegations to investigators. Persons making a report of alleged Concerns may be asked to be interviewed by Company investigators.

Anonymous whistleblowers are expected to provide sufficient corroborating evidence to justify the commencement of an investigation. Unspecified wrongdoing or broad allegations without verifiable evidentiary support will not cause an investigation to be undertaken. Because of the inability of investigators to interview anonymous whistleblowers, it may be more difficult to evaluate the credibility of the allegations and therefore, less likely to cause an investigation to be initiated.

Confidentiality of the identity of whistleblowers will be maintained to the extent possible within the legitimate needs of law and the investigation. If the whistleblower discloses his/her identity beyond the person to whom the suspected Concern is reported, a Covered Person will no longer be obligated to maintain such confidence.

A whistleblower's right to protection from retaliation does not extend immunity for any complicity in the matters that are the subject of the allegations or an ensuing investigation.

Whistleblowers have a right to be informed of the outcome of their having made a protected disclosure unless there exist overriding legal or public interest reasons not to do so.

Compliance and Disciplinary Action

A Covered Person may take disciplinary action against any officer or employee who wilfully violates or circumvents this Whistleblower Policy, or in other appropriate circumstances.

Description of Disciplinary Action

Disciplinary Action may be taken:

- Against any officer or employee who directs, authorizes or participates (directly or indirectly) in conduct that violates this Whistleblower Policy.
- Against any officer or employee who knowingly fails to report suspected Concerns as described in this Whistleblower Policy.
- Against any officer or employee who knowingly fails to report a violation or knowingly withholds relevant and material information concerning a violation of this Whistleblower Policy.
- Against the violator's supervisor(s), to the extent that the circumstances of the violation reflect inadequate supervision or a lack of diligence.
- Against any officer or employee who attempts to retaliate, directly or indirectly, or encourages others to do so, against anyone who reports a violation of this Whistleblower Policy or a suspected Concern.

Disciplinary action may include reprimand, demotion, suspension, termination, referral for criminal prosecution, and reimbursement to the respective Covered Person or the government for any losses or damages.

This Document Not a Contract

This Whistleblower Policy does not constitute a contract of any kind, nor does it limit a Covered Person's right to take disciplinary action in other circumstances. Employment at a Covered Person is "at will” and may be terminated at any time by the Covered Person or the employee, with or without any previous notice, unless a formal written agreement between the Covered Person and the employee provides otherwise.

Available Assistance

It is essential that all officers and employees understand this Whistleblower Policy and prevent conduct that could bring a Covered Person’s integrity into question. Since many of the issues that arise under this Whistleblower Policy may involve interpretive questions, the CCO has been entrusted with providing guidance and answering day-to-day questions on this Whistleblower Policy.
